JOIN THE TELFAIR TEEN ARTS COUNCIL!

Telfair Museums is looking for 10-20 dedicated, enthusiastic high school juniors and seniors who want to explore leadership in the arts and become a part of the museum! The Teen Council is a leadership program that consists of a diverse group of hardworking, creative teenagers who want to engage with art in their community.

The program enhances students' foundational knowledge of art history and museum work through workshops, lectures, and discussion with staff and scholars. Each member will enjoy a complimentary student membership and gain a behind the scenes understanding of how the museums operate. Apply today!

WHAT IS THE TELFAIR TEEN ARTS COUNCIL?

- The Telfair Teen Arts Council is a group of 10-20 high school students who represent local teens at the museum
- Members develop creative programming and coordinate community events
- Meetings take place one or two afternoons per month during the school year or as needed for completion of group projects

WHAT ARE THE GOALS FOR TEEN COUNCIL?

- Plan, support, and promote teen initiatives at the Telfair and within the community
- Design and execute a collaborative project, targeted at teens, that will be available to the museum's audience at large (past projects have included audio guides, gallery exhibitions, etc.)
- Participate in lectures, group discussions, artist workshops, art trips, and leadership training
- Serve as volunteers for selected museums classes, events, and community programs
- Explore the professional roles and functions of various museum departments
